

Mr. Christopher Snook

Mr. Christopher Snook graduated with a degree in Mechanical Engineering from Southampton University in the U.K. He served as Head of Group Country Management for Novartis International AG. In that role, he was responsible for driving Global Corporate objectives in all Novartis Country organizations and ensuring corporate governance across all Novartis legal entities. He has over 33 years of experience in the pharmaceutical industry. Mr. Snook joined Novartis in the year 2000 and served in multiple leadership capacities in various divisions at countries like Singapore, Japan and South Korea. He also held leadership responsibilities at Regional level in various divisions of Novartis. Prior to joining Novartis, he was working with Roche in various capacities including leadership positions in OTC business at China.

Mr. Snook is the Chairman of the Board of Novartis India Limited and holds Board membership in Novartis Pharma (Pakistan) Limited and Novartis (Bangladesh) Limited.